PRÉSENTATION

LE RESTAURANT

Just a few steps from the Porte Maillot and the Palais des Congrès, the sign gives you a taste of the colour inside. Le Sud deploys all the charms of the wonderful Provencal and Mediterranean cuisine, packed with fresh flavours and impeccably crafted: tomatoes stuffed with goat cheese and Garrigues herbs, traditional confit of French lamb. The change of scene is completed by the décor; a real Provencal street reconstructed in the heart of Paris! Depending on your mood, you can lunch or dine in a garden filled with olive trees, the flower market or the sunny dining room
